AMERICAN CLAIMS AGAINST GERMANY HAVE SLIM CHANCE

With Allies Holding Up Bill for Army, There Is Nothing to Pay $300,000,000.

TWO WAYS SUGGESTED.

U. S. May Settle and Collect Later, or Issue Bonds on Seized Property.

By David Lawrence.
(Special Correspondent of The Evening World.)

WASHINGTON, March 27 (Copyright).—America's difficulties in collecting sums due her from Germany are growing.

The effort to obtain the $241,000,000 for the expenses of the United States Army of Occupation on the Rhine now has drawn attention to a complication with respect to another claim of approximately $300,000,000 due American citizens whose relatives lost their lives in the Lusitania disaster and Americans whose property was seized or destroyed by Germany during the war.

American claimants have been patiently waiting for the German Government to pay them. But it is apparent now that all Germany's assets are mortgaged to the Allies and even the United States Government seemingly can't get a priority on money spent since the armistice in maintaining its army.

The legal representatives of the host of American claimants, who include the stockholders of such big concerns as the American Radiator Company, Standard Oil Company, National Cash Register Company, Singer Sewing Machine Company and International Harvester Company, are beginning to be anxious about their claims. Most of these companies had properties in Germany which were seized or liquidated by the German custodian of alien property.

If the German Government cannot pay American claims because all funds must first go to satisfy the Allied Government, the American claimants must look up the United States Government for satisfaction.

The Harding Administration has been trying to evolve a policy which would be in harmony with American tradition. It has not felt kindly toward the idea of confiscating German property here as a means of raising the money to pay American claimants against the German Government. The feeling of President Harding and Secretary Hughes has been that the individual owners of German property in America were not responsible for the acts of their Government. The American Government does not care to confiscate German property.

But how are the American claimants to be paid? There are two ways proposed. One is that the United States Government shall directly reimburse the claimants and collect in the far-off future from Germany. The other is that the German property now held by the

66 KILLED OR HURT IN AUTO ACCIDENTS OVER THE WEEK-END

Five Dead Here and Three Each Died in Detroit and Los Angeles.

Eighty-six persons were killed and injured in automobile accidents over the week-end, according to figures gathered to-day from all parts of the country.
Of these eighteen were killed.
Warm weather in many cities brought out an unusual number of motorists, with the consequent jump in the week-end casualties. The death list was heaviest in New York and vicinity, where five died, and Detroit, and Los Angeles, in each of which three were killed. Deaths also were reported from St. Paul, St. Louis, and Baltimore.

TEX RICKARD TAKES STAND TO REFUTE CHARGES OF GIRLS

Sports Promoter to Tell Life History in Trial Before Justice Wasservogel.

WIFE UPHOLDS ALIBI.

Testifies Husband Was Home When Accusers Said He Was in Garden.

Tex Rickard took the stand in his own defense in his trial on charges involving girls under eighteen years old this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

Rickard, speaking in a low conversational tone, which was almost headlong full of his story by telling how he went to work as a chore boy to support his mother and five younger children after the death of his father in 1881 at Henrietta, Texas. Soon after that he joined an expedition which was taking a herd of cattle from Texas to Montana. He returned to Henrietta in 1892 with a little money and a considerable "bunch of cattle." He was elected city marshal of the town.

Mr. Rickard said he went to Chicago in the fall of 1904 and stayed over the Christmas holidays at the Hotel Waldorf Astoria. From there he went 300 miles overland on the snow to the Klondike.
In 1906 when he went down to Dawson City he had $57,000 as a result of his mining ventures.

During the luncheon intermission George W. Olvany, counsel to Sheriff Nagle, announced the suspension from duty of Deputy Sheriff Thomas F. Burke, who has had Mr. Rickard in custody when out of the Tomb during the trial. Justice Wasservogel had been informed that Mr.
Rickard was seen at luncheon yesterday in a restaurant in 14th Street.
The Justice issued an order Saturday permitting the removal of Mr. Rickard from the Tomb "to the Sheriff's office for consultation with his counsel" during Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. Burke is understood to have explained that no restaurant in the vicinity of the Sheriff's office nearer than 14th Street was available for luncheon Sunday. Mr. Burke was suspended pending an investigation.

"What did you do in Dawson City?" asked Mr. Steyer.
"It looked like a good town; it was a good mining town," said Mr. Rickard.
"I started a gambling house and I lost the $57,000—every cent of it—that winter. I went out on the Yukon River, where there were some reports of the discovery of gold, but I didn't do very well. So Rex Beach, who was just a boy out there, cut cord wood for a grubstake for ourselves. We cut about 105 cords at $15 a cord. With the money we made I went down the river to make a new start."

Mrs. Mary Rickard, wife of the promoter, was a witness shortly after noon. Court attendants supported Mrs. Rickard to and from the witness chair, as she is weak from a long illness.

Mrs. Rickard corroborated the testimony of other witnesses who have sworn that Rickard was at his home from 6:30 o'clock to 8 o'clock on the evening of Nov. 12, last. It was on

PARDON FOR LARKIN REFUSED BY MILLER

Governor Declines to Release Irish Agitator Held in Clinton Prison.

ALBANY, March 27.—Gov. Miller has denied the application for a pardon for Jim Larkin, the Irish agitator, convicted of criminal anarchy and serving a sentence at Clinton Prison.

Announcement of his decision was made by the Governor to-day.

Larkin's attorney, Louis A. Brady of Brooklyn, had told Gov. Miller that if Larkin were set free he would return to Ireland, where, it was said, he had a large following, and would be a potent force in uniting the Collins and De Valera factions.

It was the wish of Mr. Brady and Larkin's friends that the prisoner might be given his liberty on St.
Patrick's Day.

$2,500 VERDICT FOR BABY'S DEATH IN COLD APARTMENT

Landlord Held Responsible for Fatal Illness to Brooklyn Child.

A landlord who failed to provide heat in an apartment house was held responsible today for the death of a tenant's infant by a jury in Brooklyn Supreme Court.

This was the first decision of its kind under the Emergency Rent Laws and a new Board of Health ordinance.
The verdict, which was sealed and handed up to Justice Crosey, awarded $2,500 damages to James F. D.
Cochran, whose four-month-old son, William, died, it was held, through failure of George H. Jackson, the owner, to provide heat in the apartment house at No. 230 President Street, Brooklyn. The father had paid for $10,000 damages.

Mr. Cochran testified that throughout last January he was unable to get heat in his apartment.
When he investigated, he said, he found no coal in the cellar and was told by the janitor that the furnace was out of order and could not be used until repaired. The child took cold, because of the lack of heat, and died as a result of a complication which naturally resulted, it was testified.

At the offices of 16, Royal S. Copland, Health Commissioner, it was declared that the heat was the heat of the kind to be successful. It was also the first case under the present Health Department ordinance providing that a temperature of 55 degrees be maintained throughout cold weather.

Mr. Cochran, who is an employer of the brokerage house of Goodbody & Co., No. 115 Broadway, was represented by Wing & Warr, No. 27 Cedar Street. Mr. Jackson, the landlord, lives at No. 155 East 11th Street, Flatbush.

THUG GETS 20 YEARS IN JAIL.
Albert Aquilino, twenty-four years old, of No. 212 West 17th Street, former Borden Milk Company employee, who pleaded guilty to first degree robbery in connection with the holding up of a Borden milk station dealer at 53d Street and Alexander Avenue on Jan. 27 last, was today sentenced to twenty years in Sing Sing by Judge Gibbs in Bronx Supreme Court.

WOMEN MET DEATH SMILING AS SEA WRECKED SEAPLANE

Rescued Pilot Tells of Awful Suffering Undergone by His Five Passengers.

MIAMI, March 27.—Although apparently on the road to recovery, physicians attending Robert Moore, still fear development of pneumonia as a result of the pilot's fifty-five-hour fight against thirst, starvation and bunkers in the ocean strapped to the hull of his wrecked seaplane, Miss Miami. After many hours in the hospital here Moore came out of the department which had possessed him for three days and told in graphic detail the horrible hours he had spent as he watched his five passengers slip to their death. Three of them, two women and a man, passed away in his arms.

While the pilot, still shaken with the horror of his experience, told his story crews of seaplanes and naval craft were returning from a fruitless search for the bodies of Mr. and Mrs.
August Bulte and Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence E. Smith of Kansas City and Mrs. J. R. Dickson of Memphis. The search will be continued to-day.

STILLMAN HEARING PURPOSE A SECRET

Begins Next Monday in Poughkeepsie Despite Decision Regarding Canadian Commission.

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., March 27.—A hearing in the divorce action of James A. Stillman against Anne Stillman has been called for April 3 by the judge of the Appellate Division. A decision regarding the Canadian Commission, the hearing will be held before Justice Daniel J. Gleason at Albion. The purpose of the hearing has been kept secret.

ROBBED HOMES USING TOY PISTOL

Edward Collins Declares He Had $10,000 Stolen Secured $500,000 in Loot.

CHICAGO, March 27.—United Press.
—Assertion that he robbed scores of homes of $500,000 worth of loot in the last six years and the only weapon he used was a toy pistol was made to police today by Edward Collins.

WOMAN UP IN TREE 18 HOURS, STAND BUILT TO ROPE HER

Even Baby Fails to Coax Her From Night-Long Perch Over Ravine.

WASHINGTON, March 27.—After remaining perched in the top of a twenty-foot tree for more than eighteen hours, clothed only in a nightgown, Mrs. Anna Lymborska, countess of St. Elizabeth's Hospital, was finally taken down by guards today.

She had resisted all pleadings, even refusing to leave the higher branches when her baby was placed under the tree to coax her down.

After all means of inducing her to come down were exhausted a scaffolding with a large platform was built up to within five feet of her perch.
Then an attendant climbed on a ladder and, while she was screaming at the top of her voice, the attendant threw a rope around her feet. She then attacked the guard and a fight followed in the tree tops. Holding tightly to the rope, the guard forced her down to the platform, where she was overpowered. The woman seemed none the worse for her experience.

The woman escaped from the hospital about 8 P. M. Sunday by breaking a window. She wore only nightgown. When hospital attendants started in pursuit of her, she climbed a tree with remarkable agility. Effort of attendants to reach her brought piercing screams and a threat to jump.

Police were appealed to and they then called firemen, but the woman, shouting at the top of her voice, warned them all away, declaring she would not come down.

The Fire Department brought its extension ladders and life nets. Because of the drop ravine it was impossible to stretch the net, and every time the ladders were brought near the woman repeated her threats to jump.

She is said by hospital authorities to have been suffering from calumnies since the birth of a child about fifteen months ago.
All night around the tree were turned out during the night and guards concealed themselves thereabouts in the hope that the woman would come down. Mattresses were spread under the tree in hope of saving her life if she should fall.

CITY EMPLOYEES MAY ONLY WORK SIX HOURS A DAY

Alderman Dunn Has Ordinance to Fix Hours at 9 to 4.

Eighty-five thousand city employees will be put on a seven-hour work day if an ordinance introduced in the Board of Aldermen by Alderman Dunn goes through.

The present hours are from 9 to 5 o'clock five days in the week and a half day on Saturday. Alderman Dunn's measure would make 4 o'clock quitting time on five days and 12 o'clock on Saturday. This, with a lunch hour, would practically mean only six hours for work. Permission, however, is granted by the ordinance to heads of departments to keep offices open until 5 o'clock when in their judgment it may be held necessary.

The measure is under consideration by the Committee on General Welfare.

LESS THAN FIFTY IN CITY HALL HIKE OF UNEMPLOYED

There Were Plenty of Banners But Few Marchers to Worry Police.

Police reserves from the Fifth, Mercer, Elizabeth, Clinton and Oak Street Stations lined the sidewalks on either side of the Bowers from Seventh Street to Park Row this morning to guard against a possible demonstration during the parade of the Unemployed Council of the New York Unemployed, whose members had announced they would march 1,000 strong to City Hall to interview Acting Mayor Murray Hubert about unemployment.

Capt. Gegan and the members of his Bomb Squad and all the members of the Italian Squad were scattered in the crowds prepared for any emergency.

The parade started at Seventh Street nine men strong. Five joined the marchers on the way down to Centre Street, where another contin-gent of unemployed from South Street was expected to meet them. The latter parade was little larger than the first.

Some of the men carried two banners, and frequently they appealed to apparently unemployed on the sidewalks to fall in line and take one of them. The responses were few.

"We Want Work, Not Soup Kitchens and Salvation Armies," read one of the banners. "We Won the War but Lost Our Jobs" and "Trade for Soviet Russia Means Work for Us" read two of the others.

Five men were chosen as a committee to call on Mr. Hubert at City Hall, where no unusual preparation aside from the police reserves had been made to receive them.

Capt. Gegan examined the members of the committee in the basement of City Hall in the presence of a hundred policemen before they were allowed to go up to see Mr. Hubert.

Bill Giving Ireland Her Own Government Passes Third and Final Reading in the British House of Lords.

LONDON, March 27 (Associated Press).—The Irish Free State Bill passed its third and final reading in the House of Lords to-day.

BELFAST, March 27 (Associated Press).—The Ulster Cabinet at its session to-day accepted the invitation extended by Colonial Secretary Churchill to a conference in London of Irish leaders, called in view of the disturbed conditions in Ireland.

Premier Sir James Craig, telegraphing acceptance of behalf of the Ulster Cabinet, said members of the Northeast Government would arrive in London on Wednesday.

A notice posted near the Town Hall in Dundalk, County Louth, a strong Sinn Féin centre near the Northern border of the Free State territory, calls attention to the absence of any resolution by the non-Catholic body of County Louth against murderous acts and calls upon the Protestants to "act immediately, failing which we are determined to use the same means as they in Belfast used to our fellow Catholics."

"On and after March 29," adds the notice, "for every Catholic man, woman, boy, girl or child murdered or maltreated, so also shall the same quantity of helpers of the systematic murder of our fellow Catholics meet the same fate."

The notice concludes: "Signed by order of the Silent but Sure Messengers."

Deaths in the hospitals here of two wounded persons late last night brought the total of fatalities in the disorder of the week-end to seven.

DUBLIN, March 27 (Associated Press).—Before the announcement that Premier Sir James Craig of Ulster had accepted the British Government's invitation to go to London had reached Dublin, Michael Collins, head of the Provisional Government, held a meeting of his cabinet ministers, after which the following statement was issued:

"At the present moment, it has not been announced whether Sir James Craig intends to accept the invitation of the British Government. But in any case Mr. Collins proposes to travel to London with some of his colleagues to-night, as the first responsibility for the northeastern situation rests with the British Government. It is they who brought the Belfast Parliament into existence.
It is they who have given it power and money, which it is using in its campaign of wholesale murder and outrage against our co-religionists."

Later Mr. Collins issued a separate statement in which he accused the Ulster Premier of not living up to his undertakings. Mr. Collins said that while he hoped for the best he saw no way out of the present impasse until Sir James had radically altered his present attitude toward the Government of Ireland and the helpless minority in Belfast.

The Freeman's Journal at Charleville, County Clork, has been arrested. Apparently, say the newspaper, the Irish Republican Army authorities there were offended by his report of an attempt to break up a pro-peace meeting at Charleville.
